5 v.

CIVIL NO. 97-2459 (JAG/GAG)

6 U.S. POSTMASTER GENERAL

7 Defendant

8
9 MINUTES OF PROCEEDINGS AND ORDER

10 A status conference was held today before the undersigned. Plaintiff was represented by 11 attorney Miguel Miranda. Defendant was represented by AUSA Fidel Sevillano.

12 Plaintiff is given a final extension until March 8, 2005 to provide to defendant all
13 outstanding answers to interrogatories and certified translations. Failure to comply with this 14 deadline shall result in sanctions.

15 Plaintiff's discovery cut-off date is extended until May 1, 2005. No further extensions shall 16 be granted.

17 Defendant shall file his dispositive motion on or before June 15, 2005. Plaintiff's opposition
18 shall be due thirty (30) days thereafter.

19 Each party shall then have ten (10) calendar days to file a reply/surreply.

20 In the event the summary judgment motion is denied, defendant shall be given a brief period
21 to depose plaintiff's remaining witnesses (whose testimony is not crucial to the dispositive issue).

22 The deadlines are final and unextendable.

23 The Court advises the parties that trial of this case will take place after October, 2005.

24 SO ORDERED.
